NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY:

NLTBC does not discriminate on the basis of nationality, ethnic origin, age or gender. We guarantee the rights and privileges and the availability of programs and activities to all students of the College.

PRIVACY RIGHTS OF STUDENTS:

STATUTE 20, UNITED STATES CODE, 1232g and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, hereinafter referred to as the Code, requires that each student be notified of the rights accorded him or her by the code. The following is provided as basic general information relative to the Code. The code provides for an institution to establish a category of student information termed "directory information." When available in college records, any information falling in the category of "directory information" will be available to all persons on request (i.e., the IRS, FBI, or other government agencies, and for use in NLTBC publications). NLTBC has identified the following student data as "directory information." Name, Address, Telephone listing, Race, Date and Place of Birth, Major Field of Study, Church Membership, Denominational Affiliation, Dates of Attendance, Degree and Awards Received, Most Recent Previous Educational Institution Attended. All other information, such as health and medical records, disciplinary records, records of personal counseling, required student and family financial income information records, transcripts or student permanent academic records, placement records and other personally identifiable information shall be open for inspection only to the student and such members of the professional staff of the college as have responsibility for working with the student. Such information will not be released to second parties without the consent of the student. Except as required for use by the president in the discharge of official responsibilities as prescribed by laws, regulations of the state board, and board policies, the designated custodian of such records may release information from these records to others only upon authorization in writing from the student or upon a subpoena by a court of competent jurisdiction.

READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING:

I certify that I have truthfully and accurately answered all questions contained in this application. I understand that falsification of any kind is grounds for refusal of my application or expulsion should falsehood be discovered after acceptance to the College.

I indicate by my signature that I have been notified of my rights as recorded by STATUTE 20, UNITED STATES CODE, 1232g.

I certify by my signature that I agree to abide by the policies of this institution as describe in the NLTBC Student Handbock and Course Catalog.

I understand that NLTBC is not certified by the State of Ohio, Board of Regents, but is religious in nature.

I acknowledge that NLTBC is nct a job placement service and makes no claims regarding employment.
